WE NOMINATE

Howard B. Waxwood Jr., tireless 51-year old educator, who this week enters upon his twentieth year as principal of the Witherspoon School—the school he first entered in 1909 as a wide-eyed “kindergartener.” With the dawn of another school year, and with some 330 pupils about to start classes in the Borough’s “Junior High,” Waxwood continues to radiate the convictions and enthusiasm that led him into the teaching profession in 1926 and have since carried him in 1956-57 to such positions as the presidency of the 900-member Mercer County Teachers’ Association. And to this New York-born Princetonian, grateful Princetonians now recall, belongs much of the credit for the ease with which the Borough’s schools slipped the shackles of segregation a short nine years ago.

A member of the Class of 1922 at Princeton High, where he acquired his lifelong love for anything and everything pertaining to mathematics and also demonstrated his abilities in track, Waxwood qualified for admission to Rutgers and four years later received the degree of bachelor of science in mathematics. His “Rutgers summers” were essentially prolongations of the academic year, for he helped make ends meet, and gained inspiration for the years ahead, by serving as a field assistant to the late George Harrison Shull, world-famed geneticist, developer of “hybrid corn” and from 1929 until his retirement in 1944 president of the Borough’s Board of Education.

Waxwood’s initial teaching assignments took him to the “Deep South.” For a year he taught mathematics and physics at Morehouse College, Atlanta, and from 1927 until 1935, with time out for a year of advanced study on a General Education Board Scholarship at the University of Chicago, was associated with Straight College in New Orleans. When called back to Princeton in the fall of 1935 as an eighth grade teacher in the Witherspoon School, he had attained the rank of assistant professor of mathematics and had helped blueprint the plans which resulted in the merger of Straight College and New Orleans University into Dillard University, one of the country’s leading Negro universities.

Waxwood, who earned his master’s degree in education at Rutgers, crams an amazing number of activities into the average year. In World War II summers he was a visiting professor of education at Tuskegee Institute, Ala., and for the past eight years has worked overtime in the state-supported schools for the children of migrant agricultural workers in this area. In addition to maintaining memberships in professional organizations, he is an officer of the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, YMCA, the Council of Community Services and the Playgrounds Committee and is also a member of the board of the Mercer County YMCA. Among his leisure-time interests are radio, photography and winning first prizes in duplicate bridge tournaments in New York City and Philadelphia.

For his refreshing insistence on the habit of excellence in his daily contacts with pupils, teachers and parents; for his contributions to a school system ranking with the country’s best; for his understanding of the problems educators must face and solve in the North as well as in Clinton, Tenn., and Mansfield, Texas; he is TOWN TOPICS’ nominee for

POOL PLANS AFLOAT

Joint Recreation Authority? The possible creation of a Joint Borough - Township Recreation Authority, that first off would be concerned with the construction of a public outdoor swimming pool, was among the suggestions advanced at Tuesday evening's open discussion of ways and means of bringing into being "Swimming Pool, Princeton, N. J."

With upwards of 75 persons on hand, the gathering at the Nassau Tavern Hotel, chaired by John R. Lasley, 29-year old Opinion Research executive, lost little time in forming an "ad hoc" committee to present the enthusiastic group's ideas to the Township Committee Monday evening and to the Mayor and Borough Council the following night.

In expressing strong approval of the project, which would probably represent a capital investment of $80,000 - $90,000, the surprisingly large turn-out emphasized that the pool should be open to all residents of the Borough and Township (not to residents of neighboring municipalities) and should be completed at the earliest feasible date (preferably by May 30, 1957).

When it came to registering choices among the nine possible sites suggested by the pool's initial sponsors, nearly half of those present (35) favored a seven and a half acre Township-owned tract in the vicinity of the Princeton Shopping Center. This rectangular-shaped property, roughly bounded by Grover and Clearview Avenues and the Shopping Center parking area behind the A & P and Acme, was "deeded" to the Township several years by Theodore R. Potts.

Sixteen endorsed the Borough's 17-acre Marquand Park, with a dozen advocating 39-acre "Johnson Park, just off Rosedale Road in the Township, and seven the privately owned Spruce Street Quarry in the Borough. The 49-acre Community Gardens, the open space in the neighborhood of Township Hall and the Valley Road School, drew five votes.

It was the predominant feeling that the pool should be publicly financed as a joint venture by the Borough and Township. If this should prove impossible, 36 would favor a stockholders' co-operative, an idea advanced by the Rev. Walter D. Wagoner, 4 Hunter Lane. Seven would endorse another unspecified form of personal solicitation, with a half-dozen plumping for a "pool" referendum on the November ballot and a handful looking upon the pool as part of the United Fund.

Among those serving on the special committee that will meet with Borough and Township authorities early in the week will be Dr. Oscar Sussman, 42 Clover Lane; Dr. Melvin B. Gottlieb, 83 Random Road; Ross Alger, Griggstown, representing the American Red Cross Water Safety Program; Mrs. J. E. Bachelder, 47 Cedar Lane; William B. Brettnall, 182 Hickory Court; M. George Habeeb, Overbrook Drive; Dr. Robert S. Lewis, 4 East Stanworth Drive; Mrs. Wagoner and Mr. Lasley.

TOWNSHIP TEAPOT

Anyone for Mayor? Princeton children of school age realize that Monday is September 10 because that's the day school bells ring again. But Princeton Township adult residents, especially members of its fluid Committee, know it's also the day Mayor John H. Wallace Jr. tenders his resignation. Or have they forgotten?

The Township political picture is a bit blurred at present, to say the least. Not only is there a new mayor to be chosen by Monday night, but there is the complicating factor that Mr. Wallace is the third experienced politico to quit the five-man Committee this year. And, further, there is the fact that Township Democrats are running out of time in which to pick two additional candidates for a pair of the three positions open this election year.

Veteran observers seem to feel that Albert Salzman, former mayor and 17-year Committee-man, is the only choice to serve as active "elder statesman" over the incoming novice-dominated governing body. But Mr. Salzman long has indicated his strong desire to retire from politics—probably well before the end of his current term in 1958—and is expected a "limited mayoralty," if he accepts at all. Next in line is Attorney Ralph Mason, who will be the sole Committee holdover with Mr. Salzman, and he hasn't completed his second year in office yet.

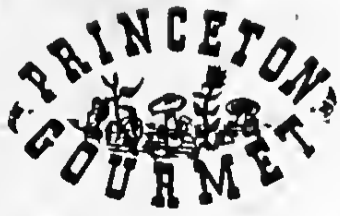

Meanwhile, sensing that this may be "anybody's year" in the traditionally Republican but fast-expanding Township, the Democrats promise they will announce two "worthy" candidates in plenty of time. Latest rumor in this department concerns Mrs. William Kleinberg, wife of the Township health officer, who says she is "available" if asked. Mrs. Kleinberg is an ex-GOPer, now working hard for the other team.

for "major manhole" work in behalf of Public Service at the much-traveled intersection of Nassau Street, Bayard Lane and Stockton Street. In addition, the SHD noted that it wants to make five additional pavement cuttings between the intersection and Palmer Square to complete an elaborate underground project before November 1.

Borough Engineer I. Russell Riker, after receiving the plans, recalled a similar situation last year, when the same state agency got a permit to do a three-week job at the busy Nassau-Witherspoon corner and wound up christening months—including the Christmas season—with the intersection in a turmoil. This time, he threw up his arms in a gesture of amazement, said he was "thoroughly disgusted" and went into action to oppose the plans.

Taking the bull by the horns, Mr. Riker phoned the SHD and, while admitting he was an advocate of Public Service's modernization program, told the unfortunate official at the Trenton end of the wire that there was no sense in scheduling such a project immediately after Labor Day, when Princeton is jammed with football crowds invade the traffic scene. He said he warned against such a development earlier this year, following the Nassau-Witherspoon debacle, but SHD paid no attention and didn't even make a move to "push" the Public Service work during the less-active summer months.

Following the inter-collegiate Borough leader told his SHD contact that he intended to take the matter before Councilman Raymond Male, executive aide to Governor Meyner, unless some changes were made—in a hurry. His third word was received from Mr. Riker's "victim," however, so news of the dilemma was forwarded at mid-week to "middleman" Male, who said he thought a municipality's "official protest" would be ample to delay the disruptive plans of a state agency.

Labor Day Labors. The Princeton Area, with a 1956 traffic fatality toll that already must cause considerable shame, managed to travel through the dangerous Labor Day weekend without recording a highway death. Well-briefed police of the Borough and Township were kept "on the go" throughout the three-day period and they investigated accidents resulting in six hospitalized motorists, but there were no critical injuries and, above all, no new fatalities.

Along with the "not unusual" number of accidents, officers arrested two disorderly persons and the "more than usual" total of four drunk drivers. These "under the influence" auto operators, two in the Borough and two in the Township, added to a list that has been growing with rather startling rapidity in Princeton in recent weeks. (For details of the Labor Day weekend police stories, see Topics of the Town).

Commenting on this point, Township Police Chief James Campbell said it was his opinion that the number of drunk drivers actually isn't "more than usual." New court reliance on the revealing results of drunkometer tests "has taken the burden of proof off the backs of policemen," he contended, and has made it much easier for officers to get a conviction, "just as it should be."

PERSONALITIES

B. Franklin Bunn, 38 Haslet Avenue, who amazed and delighted an applauding throng of inter-company firemen and guests by using an old-time "arch" method of tossing quoits to outfox and outpoint his younger opponents and thereby add to his many accomplishments a coveted Princeton championship. (See story, page 10).

William W. Turnbull, 68 Stanworth Lane, who was appointed executive vice-president and treasurer of Educational Testing Service, taking over the duties formerly held by Richard H. Sullivan after an impressive forward march through many departments since joining the ETS staff in 1948.

James Farrin, Princeton University junior who held the varsity tennis team's No. 1 post last season, later won the Eastern Intercollegiate net title and over Labor Day weekend played brilliant tennis in the Forest Hills nationals (taking the third set, 9-7) before his first-round elimination by powerful Bob Ferry, former national champion and one-time Davis Cupper.

ROUND-UP

Princeton High students, looking forward hungrily to their school's new cafeteria, have been asked to bring their own lunches for Monday only because "a labor problem" delayed completion by one day. . . . Speaking of "labor problems," a certain labor lawyer in Newark is still threatening to bring suit against the Borough for not allowing his clients to slip handbills under mail boxes here, but Borough leaders welcome the suit as a test of their seemingly hardly handbill ordinance.

With the dangerous months of September and October ahead, Princeton has not reported a Polio case in 1956. . . . State-wide, polio cases are less than a third of 1955's eight-month total. . . . Not so important but still interesting are Borough statistics showing that August parking meter receipts hit a record high of $41,533.63, an unanticipated increase over July's highest mark of $40,931.20. . . . Also, there are likely to be fewer fast drivers on Mercer Street, where Borough police stopped 11 for speeding during a two-hour radar check last Friday.

That Wisconsin-bound three-legged dog may have a ride by now, but he'd enjoy hearing from a few more driving companions—just in case. . . . Loud police sirens that heralded a quick Labor Day trip down Nassau Street by the chief were the result of an obnoxious rubber tire in the Spruce Street quarry which broke out for the fourth time that afternoon and smoldered almost all day. . . . Is your question for Question of the Week as good as those offered by fellow Princetonians on page 12?

THIS IS A SPORTS PICTURE: That's right — a sports picture. It's a shot of half the front porch at the Peacock Inn, 20 Bayard Lane, illustrating dramatically what happened when Princeton University's big varsity football team was called to lunch last Saturday. The day the players gathered before leaving for their Blairstown training camp. Relaxing on the porch, 10 Tigers responded simultaneously to the signal to eat as their coaches hope they will soon be responding to signals on the gridiron, and the floor boards gave way, as Princeton partisans hope opponents will give way this fall. The Peacock porch really didn't have a chance — the ten charging Tigers weighed well over a ton. For more about them and their efforts at Blairstown see Sports in Princeton, (Town Topics Photo by Alan Richards).

Topics of the Town

First Lesson: Safety. With the start of Princeton's Borough, Township and parochial schools next Monday, police leaders will join concerned parents and school officials in an all-out study to determine how to maintain the safest possible routes to all community schools. In particular, unfired and untended Littlebrook School will receive maximum attention.

Township Police Chief James Campbell, who heads a comparatively small department of 10 men, said he will use every available member of the force at different intersections next week in order to find out which ones require permanent patrolling. Also, he will supervise four special patrolmen, veterans of previous crosswalk experience, and two new "aprecials."

Noting the difficulties prompted by the state's promised enforcement of the two-mile bus requirements and the placement of Littlebrook a good distance from Valley Road School, Chief Campbell admitted his men will be "working in the dark a little."

until they have sized up the situation for a week or more. Littlebrook will necessitate six more patrolmen than the Township needed a year ago.

For the first week, there will be Township regulars or "specials" posted at the customary intersections near Valley Road School, plus the following: Nassau and Snowden, Nassau and Epper, Harrison and Valley, Route 206 and Red Hill and two at the entrances to Littlebrook. In all, there will be a dozen patrolmen on duty, and a 13th may be posted at Snowden and Franklin.

To Study Questionnaires. Mrs. Henry Frank, president of the Township PTA, said her group has received "many" responses to a questionnaire sent out to Township parents asking for information on children who will be walking to school and routes they will follow. The questionnaires will be tabulated by week's end, if possible, and the results given to the police department and school officials before Monday.

Mrs. Frank mentioned that many parents seem to be considering the idea of car pools and privately subsidized buses to insure travel safety. Developments along these lines probably will wait on the results of the PTA's questionnaires, facts gleaned by the police department and maybe even the advent of bad weather.

Asked about Borough plans, Police Chief John Smith said he anticipates no new problems this year and emphasized that patrolmen guarding school crossings in the Borough will continue to exert every effort to maintain their enviable safety record. Patrolmen will be situated at all vital crosswalks before and after school as well as during lunch periods.

Chief Smith noted that the Borough has been asked to build a sidewalk along the south side of Nassau Street from Cedar Lane to Snowden Lane for children walking to Littlebrook School. He said he doubted the validity of such a request, since there seems to be no reason for the Borough to pay for a Township safety measure—one that would be of limited value because the rest of Nassau Street in the Township is still without sidewalks.

Large Tract Purchased. Site of a proposed 74-acre lot subdivision in Princeton Township, the Stony Brook tract was bought this week by Hertram F. Bonner, New York investor who plans to move here in January. Priced at an estimated $100,000-plus, the transaction—involving 60 acres of land on the north side of Mercer Road, west of Stony Brook — was handled by the Shultise Agency, Highland Park real estate brokerage.

Mr. Bonner, represented by Attorney Heston N. Potts of New Brunswick, purchased the property from Stony Brook, Inc., represented by Attorney Simon A. Bahr, also of New Brunswick. Listed in the deed as members of the selling corporation were Joseph B. Brower of Deal, Leo Weiss of Edison Township and Mrs. Hazel Scamman, wife of the late Earl Seaman of Milltown.

The purchaser, president of the Virginia Construction Company and owner of the mansion now going up at the southwest corner of Elm and Rosedale Roads, said he will erect $20,000 to $30,000 homes in the new subdivision. Half of the acreage has received full Township approval for development while the rest has passed the preliminary stage.

anxious to keep Princeton's traffic state clean over the Labor Day weekend, probably set some sort of local record as they arrested four motorists for driving "under the influence" during the three-day holiday span. The offenders did their auto "weaving" at widespread locations and the two municipalities shared "pick up" honors, with a pair of apprehensions in each.

In chronological order, Walter Cupples, 78 Linden Lane, was the first holiday celebrant to run afoul of the law. Actually, Mr. Cupples almost avoided trouble, inasmuch as he was home when arrested at 11:05 p.m. Friday, but he struck a neighbor's car as he turned erratically into his own driveway — and, more importantly, just as Borough Patrolmen Robert Anderson and Theodore Lewis were cruising along Linden Lane.

The officers took Mr. Cupples to Princeton Hospital for the customary drunkometer tests, which resulted in Dr. P. C. Tan's pronouncement that he was "unfit to drive." Ordered to appear in Municipal Court next Tuesday, the defendant was released from custody Saturday under $250 bail.

Some 24 hours later, at 11:40 p.m. Saturday, Sgt. Lester Anderson and Patrolman Norman Norman Servis of the Township police department noticed Robert MacMillan, Sunset Road, Skillman, meandering northward on Route 206, a dangerous holiday highway. They stopped the motorist near Watts' grocery store and escorted him to the hospital for an examination by Dr. Tan.

As a result of another "unfit" verdict from the police physician, Mr. MacMillan was detained for a special court session before

Underground Movement

Events of the past week have led Borough Engineer I. Russell Riker to believe that space beneath Princeton is almost as much in demand as ground above the surface. At least, he's convinced that some subterranean acreage — under the town's busier streets — has become "premium" land. Everybody has an eye on it.

Mr. Riker's observation developed as he learned from Bell Telephone Company that the Princeton Water Company is installing a new water main under Olden Avenue exactly where the phone company planned to lay an important conduit link to its new building. Both firms have extensive diggings in progress or in prospect along Olden, and the Borough Engineering Department thought they were to be harmonious projects.

Now, according to Mr. Riker, both have been disrupted by the water company's "first come, first served" policy, which well may delay in building materials. And the water company has proceeded with its work in chafed turf. And the phone company has requested financial aid from the water company for re-paving because it must tear up additional street surfacing. And I. Russell Riker has more headaches.

Magistrate Louis R. Gerber on Monday, at which time he was found guilty and fined $25. A mandatory two-year revocation of license also was imposed. At 2:15 a.m. Sunday, Township officers were back in action. This time, Lester V. Plum, 24 Murray Place, was the driver and Richard Steiner and John Seeley the patrolmen. The arrest took place on Princeton-Kingston Road and, following Dr. Tan's third examination of a busy weekend, Mr. Plum was released under $225 bond pending a court appearance next Tuesday.

Perhaps the most unfortunate driver of the active Labor Day period was Nathaniel Cobbs of Philadelphia, who was arrested at 8:30 p.m. Monday on Olden Street near Bayard Lane. Mr. Cobbs stopped to ask Borough Patrolmen John Chasko and Francis McGuire to direct him toward Philadelphia. Instead, they directed him to Princeton Hospital for drunkometer tests. Dr. Tan again ruled "unfit" so Mr. Cobbs was given a summons to appear in court with Mr. Cupples next Tuesday. Bond of $250 was paid by the defendant for his release from jail.

Drunken Driver Guilty, Magistrate Paul R. Chesnoir continued to crack down on drunken driving offenders at borough court Tuesday when he fined Harry W. Dodge of 15 Palmer Square $225 and revoked his license for two years. Mr. Dodge was apprehended on Nassau Street on August 24 by Patrolman Maguire.

James Davy of Elm Road paid his second fine in less than a year for allowing an unlicensed driver to operate his vehicle. Mr. Davy pleaded guilty and was fined $55.

Two Princeton residents paid $12 apiece for "stop" sign violations. They are N. S. Schoenthal, Maple Street, and Frank Finelli, Mountain Avenue. Other violators were H. A. Douglas, John Street, $14 for going through a red light; Marvin Trotman, Birch Avenue, $15 for driving without a registration in his possession; and Miss Carol Scarserra, Fair Acres, $20 for careless driving.

Six Hurt in Accident. Six persons were injured, several of them seriously, in three separate Princeton area accidents during the past week.

Robert Moore, 26, of Herronstown was taken to Princeton Hospital early Friday morning when the pickup truck he was driving on State Road 206 struck a pole and was almost completely demolished. X-rays showed no serious injuries, and Mr. Moore was released shortly thereafter. He told township police that an unidentified car nearly struck him, forcing him off the road. The accident occurred near the intersection of Herronstown and State Roads.

THE DEADLINE IS NEAR

Announcing a Special Pre-publication Offer on

THE WORLD OF MATHEMATICS

The most extensive collection ever published, for layman and expert, of the great literature of Mathematics from the Rhind Papyrus of Egypt to Einstein's theories. Edited by James R. Newman. Presented in 4 handsome boxed volumes [each 640 pages]; with 1,000 drawings, halftones and facsimile reproductions

On September 25, 1956, after 15 years of preparation, THE WORLD OF MATHEMATICS will at last be published in four magnificent volumes. With its publication, a lavish selection of writings by the world's foremost mathematicians is, for the first time, available as a unified library within the reach of the general reader.

Here are more than 2,500 pages of selections from a literature unparalleled for lucidity and imaginative splendor. Included are 133 great books, essays, articles, and stories — more than one million words. All are woven together, with a 130,000 word commentary by James R. Newman, of the Board of Editors of Scientific American magazine.

From Vajda on Matching Pennies to Edgington on Gravity

A wealth of wonderful reading is contained here for the literate, the curious, the lively-minded. See Ronald A. Fisher's The Mathematics of a Lady Tasting Tea. Read George Bernard Shaw on The Vice of Gambling and the Virtue of Insurance.

Do you know what the smallest thing in the Universe is? The biggest? The fastest? The slowest? Read D'Arcy Thompson's essay, On Magnitude. From Vajda's essay on Matching Pennies and Von Neumann's classic

bers" gives you a fresh view of "simple" counting and thought processes. Haldane's celebrated essay, On Being The Right Size, is included. And one of the prizes of the collection is the best popular explanation ever offered of Relativity — C. V. Durrill's.

Special Pre-Publication Offer

A work of this size and scope—utilizing the finest printing, paper, and binding—would ordinarily be priced at $50 or more. However, advance enthusiasm has encouraged the publishers to plan an unusually large first printing. It is hoped in this way the retail price of four volumes, boxed and gold stamped, may be brought down to $20.

In order to build up the size of the first printing, and reduce the cost per set, we are accepting advance reservations. By entering your reservation now, you will receive the complete set of a special pre-publication price of only $14.95—even if the final price turns out to be higher than we now anticipate. (This offer expires Sept. 25, 1956.)

We believe you will want to have this great work not only for yourself and your children, but for Christmas giving.

"Theory of Games" to the mathematics of music—even the mathematics of ethics, metaphysics, and golf—every field of mathematical thought is represented.

News of the Theatres

MURRAY THEATRE

Festival Players. There is a "Richard II" on view at Murray Theatre tonight through Saturday which you won't want to miss, though isn't the best. The Princeton performances are designed as pre-off-Broadway try-outs for the vehicle driven by Princeton's Karl Light. Changes have been going on during the run and will continue as the play is shaped for its New York bow. The painful Duchess of York scenes have been cut entirely and other shifts are being tried, so Mr. Light's polished performance as the monarch may carry him to proper heights.

"The Secret Concubine," second of the Festival Players' two openings here, will have its premiere this Monday. A fiery last Monday sent Janice Rule home with her suitcase, so Eva Stern, the queen in "Richard II," has taken over the title role. Miss Stern understudied Audrey Hepburn in "Online" and has many current stage and TV credits. Albert Paulson has been cast as the king of the play, and Mr. Light will not appear in any of the second of the two productions, which will presumably succeed each other in New York. Terese Hayden is directing "Concubine."

The new play, the second to be produced for the author, Aldyth Morris, has a light, tender atmosphere reminiscent of "The King and I" and "The Teahouse of the August Moon." The setting is Oriental. Miss Morris' first produced play was "The Carefree Tree" last season at the Phoenix, with Miss Rule starred. She lives in Honolulu with her architect husband.

MCCARTER THEATRE

First official McCarter Theatre word has arrived from Bennett & Pleasant, and with it comes the prospect of a glittering fall-winter season. The definite shows are outlined in the box on page 6, and more is still to come.

Mr. Pleasant and his partner will act as producers for the very first McCarter bow, rallying a "revue with a difference," "A La Carte." The show will be one of highlights from four outstanding acts which are usually glimpsed anywhere from supper clubs to the concert stage.

Mr. Pleasant's theory is to combine the best elements into a new kind of theatre entertainment and the prospects are good for the three performances here on September 21 and 22.

Jimmy Savo will be recalled from mainly supper club engagements to appear on the stage for the first time in a long spell. The beloved comedian will be joined by John Sebastian ("Mr. Harmonica"), glamorous Vera Brynner (elder of Yuli and Myra Kinch, known for her dance group specializing in satire.

Mr. Sebastian will be barely off the plane from the Venice Music Festival. For the "long-hair" part of his program he will introduce a new concerto for harmonica and symphony orchestra by Alexander Thierpaine.

Miss Brynner is known for a host of things. She has done an acclaimed TV "Carmen," performed with the Met (in "Fledermaus"), with the City Center Opera and in Menotti's "The Consul" with Patricia Neway. On the private side, she and her brother are famous for their impromptu rendering of their native Russian gypsy songs.

Myra Kinch, completing a foursome which one would never expect to find together, least of all in a show of highlights, will appear with William Mille of her dance company. The very special evening will also include the services of Albert Malver, Manuel Colea, Maxine Bacon and Sally Holroy.

Tickets are now on sale through the box office reservation telephone, Princeton 3-5515, and by mail, through P.O. Box 525.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Johnny Concho (Sept. 6-8) finds Frank Sinatra in a off-beat Western thriller role, completely songs. He's the swaggering brother of a notorious gunman who flinty faces up to the visiting triggers on his own hook. Phyllis Kirk is his romantic interest and Keenan Wynn and William Conrad head the supporting cast.

SCHOOL OF DANCE

1956-57 SEASON

Delly Mondays through Fridays from three to five at 180 Nassau Street. Telephone 1-1822.

FACULTY

MILA GIBBONS, Director

Trained in ballet in Paris by Leo Staats, ballet master, Paris Opera, and Vaslav Veltchek, ballet master, Chatelet Theatre. Professional dancer in European, American and Far Eastern tours before becoming a dance teacher. As a teacher, trained at Teachers College, Columbia, and Daleroze Institute, Geneva. At present, secretary, Ballet Repertory Guild, New York City.

MARGARET HARVEY
Assistant Teacher

Trained at Washington School of Ballet, Washington, D. C. and Appari School of Dance, Princeton, N. J.

INSTRUCTION

- Pre-Ballet to Full Pointe (Ballet I, II, III, IV and V)
- Ballet for Adults (Basic Ballet Technique)
- Special Courses
Ballroom, Modern Character, and Exercise Classes

All the above courses are devoted entirely to instruction. Each class is a lesson from beginning to end. For preparation for recitals and rehearsals, please see below.

PRODUCTION

For those students who are ready to perform in public and who wish to do so, a recital term supplements the school term. These classes are devoted to rehearsals for appearance with THE APARRI DANCERS, a small local dance company which has been created for the presentation of ballets, both classic and modern.

FALLEN ANGELS: Mary McCarty (left) and Margaret Phillips have leading roles in the comedy opening Monday at New Hope.

is a kind of domestic horror story, done in fairly convincing documentary style. James Mason appears as a normal man who becomes a frightening psychotic because he takes overdoses of a "miracle drug." Good performances are also given by Barbara Rush as his wife and Walter Matthau. In color.

Away All Boats (Sept. 12-15) deals with an attack transport in World War II combat with the Japanese. Though the material is familiar, it is extremely well handled on all counts. Along with scenes of the shakedown of the ship, preparation and in-battle, there are film clips of a Kamikaze air attack, etc. Jeff Chandler, George Nader, Lex Barker, Keith Andes, Richard Boone and others handle their parts skillfully. In VistaVision and Technicolor.

THE GARDEN
Santiago (Sept. 6-8) is the scene for a typical "good" gun runner battles "bad" gun runner, for the sake of the Cuban revolt against Spain in 1898. The parts are played, respectively, by Alan Ladd and Lloyd Nolan with much action and, naturally, romantic wrestling with ample Rosanna Podesta. The action and the young lady are fully portrayed in color.

Congo Crossing (Sept. 10-12) depicts a fictional haven for criminals on the African coast.

McCartor Slata

The prospects already lined up for the fall season in McCarter Theatre are:

Richard Pleasant and Isadora Bennett's own special revue, "A La Carte" with Jimmy Savv, John Sebastian, Vera Brynner and Myra Kinch, playing three performances on September 21 and 22.

"Double in Hearts," a new comedy by Paul Nathan produced by Straus, Vroom and Kerna.

The Gilbert Miller-Roger L. Stevens production of "The Sleeping Prince," with Michael Redgrave, Barbara Bel Geddes and Ina Clair. This is the capture from the New Haven try-out ranks.

The Producers Theatre Hecht-Lancaster production of "Separate Troubles."

The touring Theatre Guild "Measure for Measure" as presented at the American Stratford Festival.

Altogether, a sumptuous early announcement for Princeton.

There is skulduggery, intentions of mayhem, etc., but the film mostly rests on the romance of Virginia Mayo and George Nader. Michael Pate trilinguals matters, while Peter Lorre presides over the colony. Not too fascinating an action show. Technicolor.

Water Off. If you're building a masonry house, of cinder block, stucco or waytile block, or if you have such a house, you'll want to tell your contractor about a 32-page ad that will appear in the September issues of Architectural Record and Masonry Building. The record-size ad describes the uses and advantages of "Duck's Back," a water repellent made by Princeton Technical Products Co., and tells where you can get the product.

Locally, the answers are Grover Lumber Company, 184 Alexander, telephone 1-0041; Boice Lumber Co., 316 Alexander, 1-5000, and Nassau Point, 126 Nassau, 1-2086.

"Duck's Back" is a silicone water repellent that can be applied to all kinds of masonry, old or new. It gives an invisible protective raincoat that lasts for ten years, and while it keeps outdoor moisture from getting in, it allows inside moisture to get out, thereby relieving pressures that cause a lot of paint troubles in houses.

The product was developed by Walter F. Pullam of Princeton, and it has been successfully used on many local buildings and homes.

"... to Remember You By." Commemorative silver pieces make a pleasant little gift for somebody who's moving away, or celebrating an anniversary or marking 50 years with the same company.

LaVake-Reid, at 54 Nassau, enlarges its trays, plates and hollow ware pieces right there in the store and this speeds up the process considerably from the consumer's point of view. So, whether you want a silver tray at well over $1,000, or a small ash-tray at well under $1,000, they can supply your demand.

The Towle line of flat ware has been added to the LaVake-Reid treasure chest, and you may inspect the various patterns now. The store has just had a glistening new green paint job that makes the silver look even brighter.

Gals off to college may like to do research in the collection of charm bracelets and separate charms. We pored over a box of 48, and this was only part of the whole. There are about 72 from which to choose.

Shoe the Colt. New fall shoes, not by the foot, but by the running mile at Hull's, 140 Nassau. The two-eyed tie looks like the school and college favorite this year. We saw it in many variations, often with little square wooden blocks at the tie ends.

There are soft grain leathers with crepe soles, a shoe that looks like a desert boot lined with smooth leather, and shoes done in bucko. (White bucks for girls—that's really big.)

A pigskin step-in, cut lower than a loafer, has the bucko fin-

Profile for Grandmother

A golden profile of a grandmother's most precious treasure—her grandchildren: LaVake-Reid suggests this as a Christmas present.

The shop will make a 14-carat gold silhouette of a child, about three-quarters of an inch high, designed to wear on a charm bracelet or a locket chain. The profile isn't actually a silhouette because it includes hair outline, the eye, and a tracing of the mouth.

On the other side of the head, which is plain, the shop will engrave the child's name, the date, or any thing else you wish. The price is $30, and if you have Christmas in mind, you might begin to sketch that profile now.

Ish. A flat, cocoa colored with wedge heel, has the weight of a feather because of its special sole. In black, too. A loose natural colored leather not decorated it on the vamp.

Fringe softens another step-in shoe, and there's a little Italian-style shoe with pointed scallops all around its edge, to show up against a leg or a stocking. Comes in rust or black.

Flat shells that so many girls live in, are lined with paisley, and you'll find a flat this year in deep brown, besides the usual range of colors.

For younger scholars, Stride Rite is the shoe. All sizes, widths and styles for the arithmetic crowd.

Once back-to-school is out of the way, you can begin to think about women's autumn shoes. Air-Step offers this season a black suede pump, medium heel, with a black elastic faulle back that blends remarkably well with the texture of the suede. You're not aware of an elastic at all, in looking at the shoe: it seems rather like a shoe in which two fabrics have been subtly used together. The elastic makes a good fit, of course. The shoe is called, for some reason, "Rapture".

Air-Step uses a lot of crushed calf in its fall shoes this year. The soft, rather grainy look is especially good with suits. We saw a Cuban heeled pump in red, black and brown.

Lizards are sweater pumps—the narrow elastic around the edge hugs like a sweater and makes a perfect fit. Brown, black and red lizards baffle the herpetologist but please the ladies.

Obituaries

Joseph L. Hallinger, 76, a former resident of this community who had lived here for more than 50 years, died September 1 in Wichita, Kan., after a lengthy illness. He was for a number of years employed by the University Poultry Market.

Mr. Hallinger, who was born in Mount Rose, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah Hallinger; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Davison, both of Princeton; a son, William J. of Wichita; a brother, James Hallinger of Titusville; three sisters, Mrs. Dora Austin of Asbury Park; and Mrs. Ethel Duffin of Hartford, Conn.; and five grandchildren. Burial was in Wichita.

Mrs. Jessie Shannon, 88, formerly of 28 Vandewater Avenue, died September 1 at a Windsor nursing home. Widow of William T. Shannon, she was born in Greenfield, Ind.

She is survived by a cousin, Mrs. Ella J. VanNorman, which whom she had lived here, and three nieces. The funeral and interment were in Greenfield.

Mrs. Florence A. Shields, 78, of 40 Maple Street, died September 2 in a Hightstown nursing home following a long illness. She was the widow of Daniel J. Shields.

Born in Kingston, Mrs. Shields lived here most of her life. She is survived by three sons, Thomas F. and William E. Shields of Princeton and Joseph J. of Bordentown; a brother, Walter S. Hines and a sister, Mrs. Thomas F. Burke, both of Kingston. There are also five grandchildren.

Mrs. Shields was a member of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Paul's Church. The service was held at the Kimble Funeral Home, followed by regular high mass at St. Paul's Church and burial in the parish cemetery.

The Rev. John F. Walsh, 67, who served as pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church for a number of years before the war, died of a heart attack while visiting in Fair Haven, N. J. At the time of his death, he was pastor of St. Elizabeth's Church, Fair Hills, and also had a mission, St. Bridget's Church, Pennapack.

Father Walsh was born in Jessup, Pa. and ordained in Scranton following his graduation from Niagara Seminary in 1913. After serving as a curate at St. Mary's Cathedral in Trenton, he was commissioned as a chaplain with the 78th Division in World War I. Pastored parishes in Allentown, Trenton, Princeton and High Bridge.

Two sisters, Mrs. Mary Houser and Miss Beatrice Walsh of Clark's Green, Pa. and a brother, William Walsh of Philadelphia, survive. A pontifical obsequy of requiem will be celebrated Thursday at 10:30 a. m. in St. Elizabeth's Church by Bishop George W. Ahn.

Mrs. Marie D. Webster, 97, of 35 Boudinot Street, died August 30 at a nursing home in Princeton following a long illness. She was the widow of George Webster.

A native of Wabash, Ind., Mrs. Webster had written a number of books on quilting. She was a member of the Present Day Club and the First Presbyterian Church.

A son, Lawrence E. Webster and two grandchildren, all of Princeton, survive. The service was held at the Stather Funeral Home, with the Rev. Dr. John R. Bodo, pastor of the First Church, officiating. Burial was in Princeton Cemetery.

Mrs. Marion Stevens, 53, of 83 Whentsen Lane, suffered lacerations of the head and shock when she was injured in a two-car collision Monday night on State Road 206 near Bolmer's Corner. Mrs. Janet Hanna, 38, of Brookville, Pa., received fractured ribs in the crash, with both women treated at Princeton Hospital.

Driver of the car was Frank E. South, 77, of 2 Nassau Street. Mr. South and the other driver, Russell Tugson, 29, of Mechanic Station, were unharmed. Mr. Tugson's father, Robert, 68, was admitted to the hospital with a possible concussion.

Culvert Crash Hurts Two. Mrs. Willie J. Evans and Miss Eunice Lane, both of Trenton, are recuperating in Princeton Hospital this week following a bad one-car accident on Elm Road last Saturday night. While Mrs. Evans, the driver, suffered two broken legs and Miss Lane received a fractured jaw, hospital attendants report they are "resting well" and list their conditions as "good."

According to Township investigators, Mrs. Evans was traveling north on Elm about 10:50 p. m. when she lost control of her car, swerved from the east to the west side of the road, continued 28 feet on the west edge of the road and crashed against a concrete culvert just south of the Mountain Avenue intersection. Mrs. Evans told the officers that she hit a bump in the road, causing her to lose control of the vehicle, but she was cited for careless driving.

Damage to Mrs. Evans' 1954 Chevrolet sedan amounted to approximately $600, the officers reported.

"Richard" Actor Killed. Sydney Stevens, 33-year-old member of the Festival Players who are performing "Richard II" here, was killed at 2:30 a. m. last Wednesday morning when his motor scooter was struck from behind by a car on Route 1, near Rahway. Mr. Stevens, who was playing three roles in the Murray Theatre—Continued on Page 9

French Market to Resume. The Garden Club of Princeton, whose spring sales suffered from the cold weather that, in turn, hampered flower harvests, will attempt to compensate for earlier losses in the annual French Flower Markets at the Fall. The club will hold its first market Friday morning from 9 to 11:30 on the small island at the junction of Nassau and Mercer Streets, opposite Town Topics.

The Garden Club has decided to shift its market day from Saturday to Friday in an attempt to avoid the pressure placed on hostesses by University football weekends. Mrs. Xavier von Erdberg will be in charge of this week's market and will be assisted by Mrs. Barklie Henry, Mrs. James Barnes, Mrs. Gregory P. Tschobanoff and Mrs. Walter Van B. Roberts. Mrs. Henry is also serving as Fall chairman. The non-profit group will contribute proceeds to various community and horticultural projects. On sale this week will be zinnias, marigolds, asters, dahlias, chrysanthemums and other flowers, as well as fresh vegetables, eggs, plants and baskets.

Legion Post Active. Princeton Post No. 76, American Legion, has selected delegates for the upcoming national and state conventions. Marino Ferrara, and Thomas Lynch will represent the Post at the national convolve in Los Angeles.

Delegates to the Department of New Jersey American Legion Convention, to be held in Wildwood September 13 to 15, are Ernest Drake, Elwood Elydenburgh, Henry Robertello, Henry Frank, Elmer Greedy, Nathaniel McKee, and Eric Jungburg. The alternates are Theodore Marie, William J. Birch, Samuel G. Davidson, Robert Schmidt, Norman Fowler, Andrew O'Hara, James Whitlow and Charles J. McHugh.

Many other post members plan to attend the convention as guests. One of the highlights of the meetings will be an address by Governor Robert Meyner, who will speak at the business session.

Registration Deadline Near

Prospective New Jersey voters were reminded this week that the deadline for registration for November's general election is closing in on them. Both Borough Clerk Robert Mooney and Township Clerk Joseph Nini announced "extra" registration hours and urged eligible citizens to take care of the simple but significant chore soon.

In addition to regular 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. weekday hours, Township Hall will be open for registrants from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturday, September 22, and also from 7 to 9 p. m. on September 24, 25, 26 and 27 (the last possible day). Borough Hall will be open from 7 to 9 p. m. on September 26 and 27, and may be open during the same hours the two preceding evenings. The county mobile registration unit will be situated at Valley Road School next Monday from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Clerks Mooney and Nini pointed out for Princeton newcomers that registration eligibility hinges on state residency of one year, plus county residency of five months, by election day, November 6.

The Legion has also announced that it will provide all of the American flags for classrooms in the Littlebrook School. The flag for the main pole has already been donated by the Post, while a standard and flag for the auditorium will also be provided.

The group's monthly scrap paper drive will be resumed Sunday at 1 p. m. Norman Fowler, chairman of the scrap paper committee, has requested that bundles be placed by the curb.

Spolis Birthday, Gets Spanked. Maybe fate caught up with William Lee after a long chase and punished him for being such an able pace-setter. Regardless, the Princeton visitor did nothing to aid his own cause last Friday and, as a result, was sent to the Mercer County workhouse to serve a 60-day sentence.

A lodger at Fred Grady's boarding house, 145 Witherspoon Street, Mr. Lee was striped under a complaint signed by his landlord, charging him with stealing $180.—Continued on Page 10

THIS IS ONE WAY TO KEEP

BUT...

WE SUGGEST A Swimming POOL
 a product of the Northeast Swimming Pool Co.

Some people say, "It makes no difference how I cool down, just so long as I cool down."

Personally we care how we cool down and we think maybe you care too.

When avoiding the heat (and there's a lot of it still ahead) you should want convenience, comfort, privacy, and moderate cost.

A personal Northeast swimming pool gives you all these things PLUS the healthy invigoration of swimming.

At low cost—$49.50 per month—your back yard becomes a private beach club, reserved always for you and your family.

Now that's what we consider the way to cool down.

Every modern clean-lined Northeast pool is guaranteed for five years.

From Mr. Grady, and hooked for being a disorderly person. Police speculated that the defendant spent the money, since it has yet to be recovered.

When Borough Investigators tried to locate Magistrate Paul R. Chesbro for a special hearing, he proved unavailable. So Township Magistrate Louis R. Gerber was called—away from his own birthday celebration.

Mr. Lee complicated matters by requesting a lawyer and then, after a two-hour delay, decided on attorney wouldn't do him much good. Magistrate Gerber, thoroughly and understandingly displeased, found the defendant guilty and ordered the 60-day jail term.

Hoits Win Target Shoot. Princeton Engine Company No. 1's elite members, hosts for this year's inter-company target shoot, reversed a jinx tradition Labor Day and defeated their visitors by a handy margin. The five sharpshooters representing No. 1 amassed a total of 317 points (out of a possible 150), followed by Mercer County Engine Company No. 3 and Hook & Ladder with respective totals of 107 and 98.

No. 1's winning team was composed of Bill Rodewald, who fired a 26 (out of 30) to cop top honors in his own company and lead all qualifiers for the team, along with Bucky Cyprius (25), Eddie Swinnerton (24), Frank Haupt (20) and Bill Quinn (22). The latter came back with a fine 28 in the inter-company competition to score No. 1's triumph, tying Bob Silverstein of Hook & Ladder and Johnny Stalker of No. 3 for best individual scores.

In addition to the popular target shoot, this year's inter-company outing was noted for its combination of good weather, good food, good turnout (over 1,000) and extra good quill tournament. Champions of the unusually spirited quills tourney were B. Franklin Bunn, former mayor of both Borough and Township who said he hadn't done much practicing this summer "but just felt right today," and Jack Petrone, Township patrolman who has achieved success in many sporting endeavors.

The Bunn-Petrone combination, selected "by chance" as were all the others, entered stiff competition in the tournament finals in the persons of Borough Patrolman Stanley Donald and John (Caddy) Cashill, a pair of veteran quills tossers. In fact, a sizable rally was required as the Donald-Cashill team took the first match, 31-23, before the ultimate winners found the range 31-21 and 31-29.

Hilton Realty Expands. Hilton Realty Co. has moved into its new offices on the second floor of the Redding Building at 254 Nassau Street. The company, founded in September of 1955, now occupies a suite of four offices.

George H. Sands is the broker. Mr. Sands has also conducted a public accounting business here for the past eight years. Edmund T. Waters Jr. and Walter D. Silverman have recently become associated with the firm as salesmen, along with William H. Murphy.

Development Sales Expanded. General sale has been started for Hamilton Terrace, a development of 16 split-level homes located on the north corner of Hamilton Avenue and Harrison Street North. One of the homes have already been sold.

Homer Avenue will run through the 12-acre former Marguerite property. The builder is Joseph Carp of Majestic Construction Co., developer of Princeton Knolls. A Hilton Realty Co. agent is on the premises from 1 to 8 p.m. daily.

The houses now being erected offer a choice of six different models, on quarter-acre lots. Fourteen 3-bedroom houses are priced from $24,250 to $25,250 and four 4-bedroom houses are priced at $27,500. Occupancy will start October 1; for further details, see page 26.

Chapin Approaches 25th Year. The opening of classes September 19 at the Chapin School will mark the start of its 25th year as a private educational elementary and nursery school here.

Mrs. Paul S. Smith reports that improvements in the school building on Snowden Lane include two additional classrooms, a new heating plant, many new school desks, chairs, lockers and office equipment, and repainting and landscaping.

The faculty emphasizes maximum individual attention for each student. There are eleven members of the staff in addition to Mrs. Frederick Harper of Rutgers University, an expert in speech therapy and holder of a doctorate from the University of Prague; David Hudnut, Princeton '57, athletic director; and Mrs. Sidney Scholtzky, B. A. from Hunter College, secretary.

Mrs. Richard Smider, a graduate of Westchester Teachers College, and Mrs. Herbert Hagene, B. S. from Cornell and graduate work at NYU and Drew, will be in charge of the nursery and kindergarten. First grade will be taught by Mrs. Paul Olson, assistant headmistress and a holder of an M.A. from Nebraska. Mrs. Benjamin Appel, who has a master's degree from NYU, will teach second grade and science.

Mrs. Robert Hartle, a Texas graduate, will be in charge of third grade, while Mrs. George F. Jones, with a Columbia M.A., will teach fourth grade and art. Miss Faith Emery, a graduate of Rollins, will return to teach fifth grade. The upper school will be directed by Mrs. Frank Engle, who holds an A.B. from Akron University and has done graduate work at Duke and Penn State, while Mrs. George Grice, a graduate of Barnard who later attended Rutgers, will teach social studies.

New Beauty Parlor. Miss Dolores Arronzenzi has purchased the beauty parlor operated at 230 Nassau Street under the name of Mercedes. She will open Monday under the name of Dolores Hairstylist.

Miss Arronzenzi, whose home is at 2116 Lawrence Road, Lawrenceville, has been at Artistic Hairdressers for the past two years. For further information, see the announcement on page 11.

Appointment Announced. Charles C. Townsend, Jr. has been named treasurer of Hammer Electronics Co. of Princeton. A graduate of Princeton University with the Class of 1949, Mr. Townsend was formerly associated with the Atlantic Refining Co. of Philadelphia. He also holds a degree from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

Hammer Electronics, an association of Princeton scientists, was organized in 1954. The firm manufactures precision instruments for use in nuclear research and the analysis of magnetic materials.

Women's League to Meet. Marii Hasegawa, president of the New Jersey branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Princeton branch. Mrs. Hasegawa, whose talk will be open to the public, will speak September 13 at 8:15 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Loren Johnson, Overbrook Drive.

She will report on the annual meeting of the United States Section of the League, which was held recently in Oberlin, Ohio. The theme of the national meeting was "To Build a More Effective Peace Movement."

Women Plan Lawn Party. An afternoon lawn party at Quincey Hall, Lovers Lane and Stockton Street, on September 20, will serve to launch the fall activities of the newly-organized Women's Republican Club of Princeton. Number one on the agenda will be the mapping of campaign support for the G.O.P. national and local tickets in the November election.

Plans for the affair, open to all Mercer County Republican women, were completed at a meeting of the executive board of the club at the home of the new president, Mrs. Robert W. Mangold. Board members include Mrs. Charles J. Rocknak, Mrs. N. R. Hower, Mrs. John Servis, Mrs. H. C. Storey, Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Mrs. William B. Dodge, Mrs. William B. Dodge, Mrs. L. T. Getty, Mrs. Alex. Eull, and Mrs. W. J. B. Stokes II.

Mrs. Mangold announced that several speakers, including party candidates, are expected to attend the meeting. She also reported that the membership committee will be prepared to enroll new members at the affair.

Senators Boast the Support. New Jersey's two Republican Senators, H. Alexander Smith of Princeton and Clifford P. Case, gave more support to President Eisenhower's legislative program during the 84th Congress than any other Senators. Their combined support averages, which topped figures throughout the country, were compiled from a survey by Congressional Quarterly.

Senator Smith supported the President on 88% of all domestic and foreign issues, while Senator Case recorded 90%. The figures were compiled on a basis of 117 domestic and foreign legislative issues on which President Eisenhower has taken a position.

The five closest states behind New Jersey, based on the combined scores of their two U.S. Senators, were Utah, California, Pennsylvania, Vermont and Maryland. For the second session alone of the 84th Congress, Senators Case and Smith registered a score of 91% on 65 issues.

Summer Job Tax Advice. Parents of boys and girls working during the summer are advised by the Internal Revenue Service that under certain conditions, their children may still be claimed as full exemptions for Federal income tax purposes. The youngsters themselves may be entitled to part or whole refunds of income taxes withheld from their wages.

The special exemption rule applies to children who will still be under 19 years of age at the end of the year and children who are full-time students, regardless of age. The dependency exemption may be claimed by the parents if they contribute more than half of the child's support, regardless of the amount earned by the child. Prior to 1954, no person earning $600 could be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer. —Continued on Page 13

SHEDDING LIGHT ON THE QUESTION: Town Topics' inquiring reporter proves he will go to great lengths (and heights) to get an answer to Question of the Week (as well as an eye-catching picture to draw attention to Question). John Skirzynski, electrical mechanic with the State Highway Department who specializes in the maintenance of traffic signals, is the gent with the paint brush brightening up the Nassau-Vanderwater intersection. For his equally illuminating answers, and a half-dozen others, read below. (Town Topics Photo by Alan Richards)

Question of the Week

Question: If you had an opportunity to ask Question of the Week, what question would you ask?

Location: Nassau Street.

Eric P. Mihan, 55 Park Place, shop owner: I am definitely concerned with the retail business of this town. Therefore, I would ask a question about all phases of parking in downtown Princeton. Do we have appropriate time limits on our parking meters? Are our parking lots properly run, or should there be a two-hour limit? Is it feasible and in keeping with Princeton's style to build another deck on one of the lots, creating a municipal garage? Also, are we—the merchants—doing the right things for our customers? Where can we improve—through newer stores or more personalized attitudes? And should the Borough merchants be open Friday evenings? These questions are foremost in my mind.

John Skirzynski, Trenton, electrical mechanic with the State Highway Department: Who's going to win the November election? I think the Stevenson-Kefauver combination is strong and has a good chance of winning, so the election is not a cut-and-dried proposition and ought to make an interesting question. Since Adlai went to college here, it might be even more interesting to know what the people of Princeton think of his chances. My second choice would be a question about Princeton's 1956 football team. The Tigers had a good team last year and should do well again. I know I'll be herb to watch 'em. Oh yes, I might ask for the phone numbers of some of your pretty girls on Nassau Street—but not for publication.

Isaiah Fisher, 38 Leigh Avenue, salesman and delivery truck driver: I've been asked several times before in different ways, but I still feel the vital question in Princeton today is housing. Just a year ago, I was in the predicament of having to move and not knowing where to. Luckily, I had a few friends in town and was able to stay with one until another lined up an apartment for me. I don't like to stress the racial aspect, but where do people go to live—and it's particu-

Turnabout's Fair Play

Call it the stifling weather or an air of relaxation caused by the Labor Day weekend or whatever you choose to call it, but Town Topics this week found itself admittedly hurting for an appealing Question of the Week. It seemed too hot to bother Princetonians with side-walk pondering over Nassau's nastiness or other world problems. It seemed much too early to discuss the World Series or the national election.

True, Princeton remained the source of numerous civic headaches; yet, this holiday-influenced week didn't seem like an appropriate time to work a dose of verbal aspirins. So the inquiring reporter decided to let the men-on-the-street take over for a change. The stimulating results of his decision can be found elsewhere on this page.

cularly tough for people in the minority groups—if they don't have helpful friends as I had? We've heard a lot about Urban Redevelopment and low-cost housing—to whose advantage, I ask?

Richard Conger, 404 Nassau Street, business consultant and writer: I'd pose a question about private schools in Princeton and what's to be done about them. The town is bound to expand much more in the near future, and, in preparing for this growth, Princetonians must think ahead and lend these schools a helping hand. Princeton County Day, for

GOOD TIME HAD BY ALL: Celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Proccacino held a family "open house" Saturday at their home, 299 Witherspoon Street. Eight of their nine children, who are all residents of the Princeton area, turned out for the "golden" festivities. On hand with the happy couple were (l. to r., standing) Ernest Proccacino, Joe Proccacino, Ralph Proccacino, Mrs. Emma Carnevale, Nick Proccacino and Albert Proccacino, and (left, kneeling) John Proccacino and (right, kneeling) Alexander Proccacino. Absent: Mrs. Nellie Palumbo of Trenton, Mrs. Proccacino came to America from Italy at age 4 and has lived in or near Princeton ever since. Her husband, who retired from the University's grounds and buildings force several years ago, arrived here at age 18 and married a year later, when his bride was just 15. They now have 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. (Town Topics Photo by Alan Richards).

Township Has 31 New Teachers. A total of 31 new teachers, the largest increase on record, will join the Township schools staff when the first bell rings next Monday. Providing replacements as well as staffing the new Littlebrook School has resulted in the unprecedented number.

The New Arrivals: Mrs. Norma Stroke, 8 Dickinson Street, a former instructor in the Hamilton Township Schools, will teach kindergarten at the Littlebrook School.

Miss Beverly Haley, Gardiner, Maine, a June graduate of Wheelock College in Boston, will teach first grade at Littlebrook.

Miss Sarah Virdler, who has been instructing kindergarten in Landsdowne, Pa., will teach first grade at Littlebrook.

Mrs. Sarah Shoemaker, 159 Hickory Court, who comes here from Charlotte, N.C., will teach first grade at Valley Road School.

Mrs. Erma Kraaz, with previous experience in New York and Pittsburgh, will teach first grade at Littlebrook.

Miss Ann Sheehan, Natick, Mass., a June graduate of Wheelock College, will teach first grade at Littlebrook.

Miss Patricia Sullivan, 132

Snowden Lane, a former instructor at West Windsor Township School, will teach second grade at Littlebrook.

Miss Gretchen Sternberg, an alumna at Princeton High and a June graduate of Wheelock College, will teach second grade at Littlebrook.

Mrs. Peggy Lechner, of Danville, Pa., a June graduate of Bloomsburg State Teachers College, will teach second grade at Littlebrook.

Mrs. Doreen Duba, 56 Stockton Street, who taught last year in Hightstown, will teach third grade at Littlebrook.

Miss Henriette Pennacker, Newton Center, Mass., a graduate of Wheelock College, will teach third grade at Littlebrook.

Mrs. Priella Fisher, New York, a former instructor on Long Island and in Potsdam, N. Y., will teach third grade at Valley Road.

Mrs. J. Dewter, Covington, O., a former instructor in Melrose Park, Ill., will teach fourth grade at Valley Road.

Miss Esther Pownall, Newtown, Pa., who has been doing graduate work at Trenton State Teachers College, will teach fifth grade at Valley Road.

Miss Elizabeth Richardson, New York, a graduate of the University of Rochester, will teach fifth grade at Littlebrook.

Mrs. Marion Long, an instructor in Kansas City, Mo., will teach at one of the Township schools.

Mrs. Ann McKinahan, 401 Dodge Hall, an instructor in Robinsville, N.J., will teach sixth grade at Valley Road.

Mrs. Anne Loshan, 22 Madison Street, an instructor at Plainboro Township School, will teach sixth grade at Valley Road.

Mrs. Ruth Law, 98 Random Road, a graduate of Ohio University, will teach mathematics in grades seven and eight at Valley Road.

Frank B. Schnorbus, Trenton, who received his master's degree at Notre Dame, will teach English and Latin at Valley Road.

David E. Hogenauer, Port Chester, N.Y., who received his master's degree at Harvard University, will teach social studies at Valley Road.

Leonard J. Rahilly, 218 Hawthorne Avenue, an instructor in Hightstown, will teach French in grades seven and eight at Valley Road.

Mrs. Mary Johnston, Morris-town, will teach French in grades three, four, five and six at both Valley Road and Littlebrook.

Mrs. Dorothy Mandelbaum, a graduate of Hunter College, will teach science in grades seven and eight at Valley Road.

Key To Success

An interesting (and financially strong) point in the annual school report received last week by the Borough Board of Education, is the fact that students paying tuition were responsible for $428,278.50, accounting for income second only to receipts obtained through Borough taxes and adding $20,278.50 to school coffers that wasn't counted on.

A glance at certain figures incorporated in the report indicates how important the sending districts (and their tuition-paying pupils) are to the financing of the Princeton system. The high school, for example, shows a record enrollment of 1,148 for the past academic year, with the sending districts contributing 870 of them, as follows:

Franklin	103
Hopewell	79
Lawrence	71
Montgomery	99
Plainsboro	48
Princeton	258
Rocky Hill	27
South Brunswick	47
West Windsor	124
Parents	14

Miss Catherine Whyte, 80 Snowden Lane, currently the public health nurse for the Princeton Board of Health, will be the new nurse at Littlebrook.

Mrs. Patricia S. Neumann, Cronston, R.I., who has been instructing at Middletown, Conn., will teach art at Valley Road.

Mrs. Edna Chen, of Honolulu, who has been teaching in Somers—Continued on Page 14

Galashiel Caps . . . are new to the English Shop (5 Palmer Square) this fall. Made in Galashiel, Scotland by J. and J.C. Dorward, Ltd., these caps to oatmeal tweed, grey or brown herringbone, have the distinction of an unbreakable visor and unbeatable style and quality.

Also, a Pair of. Coltoning makes an all-Shetland sweater with crew neck and long sleeves. In misty colors like heather grey, blue, beige, charcoal or dark brown, this is the Shop's sweater prize.

The Shetland Isles also contribute wool for an Invertoe coat of pure Shetland Tami Nori, woven in the Isles, and tailored in Devonshire. It's grey herringbone, reversible.

For a princely robe, there's a wool challis of Liberty Print, luminous in greys and yellows, or hazy reds, a magnificent investment in good taste.

You'll find, of course, the usual immense English Shop collection of sports jackets—500 of them. The ones in now are from Scotland and England. The Harris tweeds will be coming soon. Loden King, made in Germany, is the real, true Loden coat, water repellent, classically styled, closed with toggles. We liked it in black with scarlet lining, but it also comes in grey, tan, and that Loden green.

ville, will teach art at Littlebrook. Mrs. Jayne Neary, Pennington, an instructor at Basking Ridge, will teach vocal music at both Littlebrook and Valley Road. Miss Winifred Whalen, Middlesex, an instructor at Mater Misericordiae Academy, Metuchen, Jr., will teach physical education at Valley Road.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harlow, a Princeton resident for 10 years, will instruct physical education at Littlebrook School.

Civil Defense Drills. Princeton and surrounding communities will observe the nation in observance of Civil Defense Week, starting Sunday. Thomas S. Dignan of Princeton is acting director of the New Jersey Division of Civil Defense and Disaster Control. Dignan has asked public and parochial schools to empty their classrooms Thursday, September 13, in the state's first air raid drill for school children.

The week, first of its kind on a national scale, has been set aside by President Eisenhower to honor Civil Defense volunteers everywhere. New Jersey's division will conduct open house at its training school in Hammonton and will launch its new emergency hospital unit in Somerville.

Town Club Outing. A hike and swimming trip to Mt. Tammany on the New Jersey side of the Delaware Water Gap is being planned by the Princeton Town Club under chairman Bruce Rankin. The group will meet at 9 a.m., Saturday, September 8, at the Chambers Street Parking lot and then make to the Gap.

After a picnic lunch on the park, plans include a swim at Kittingly Beach in the Delaware River. Rankin, who can be reached at Hopedell 6-0388-1-11 for further information, is also considering a picnic supper, an and dancing under the stars on the beach. The invitation is open to Town Club members, guests and friends.

Registration Reminder. Princeton's League of Women Voters is advising college students who will be 21 by November 6 to register to vote before returning to school.

PROMOTED TO MAJOR: Arthur J. Poillon (right), son of Mrs. Lena J. Poillon, 113 Lexington Lane, is shown receiving his appointment to Marine Major from Lt. Gen. E. A. Pollock, Commandant of Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va. Mrs. Poillon, the former Miss Natalie J. Tudate of Wilmington, Del., looks on. Before entering the service in February 1943, Major Poillon attended Princeton University.

After registering, students are reminded to apply for absentee ballots if they will not be at home at election time.

Applications for absentee ballots can be made to the Clerk of the Mercer County Court House in Trenton, either in person or by letter. Home address, address to which the ballot should be sent, and the reason why an absentee ballot is desired should be included in the letter as well as the signature used when signing of the polls.

Any properly registered voter is eligible for an absentee ballot if he expects to be out of the state on election day or is unable to cast his vote at his polling place because of illness or physical disability.

Reserve Officers Train. Three Princeton residents attended a two-week course for reserve officers of the First Army Area at Fort Holman, New Bedford, Mass. They received instruction in tactical air reconnaissance and processing of information.

Attending the courses were Lt. Col. Kenneth S. Fow, 160 North Stanworth Drive, research director at Opinion Research Corporation; Lt. Col. Alan C. Poole, 75

Alexander Street, investment analyst, Hemphill Noyes and Co., New York; and Major Irving Van Zandt Jr., Ridgeview Road, vice-president of Benson and Benson, Inc., Princeton.

Attends International Conference. Dr. Charles C. Gillispie, Associate Professor of History at Princeton University, is one of the U.S. delegates this week at the third post-World War II International Congress on the History of Science in Florence and Milan, Italy. His attendance marks the first time that this state on election day or is unable to cast his vote at his polling place because of illness or physical disability.

A member of the Princeton Faculty since 1948, Dr. Gillispie is participating in the conference as a recipient of a National Science Foundation Fellowship.

A man with an abacus stood on the corner of Hamilton Avenue and Harrison Street one day. He had one red eye and one green eye and he was counting cars to see whether the intersection needed a traffic light.

In one day he counted 9,419 cars and all of them except one* were either going to or coming from the Princeton Shopping Center. (He didn't set up road blocks and examine each car, but when you see station wagons with groceries, convertibles with big boxes labeled "Bamberger's" and happy drivers without parking tickets in the windshield, you KNOW.)

* The exception was the wife of the abacus man who drove her husband to work and then went home. When he told her, "9,419 cars!" she went to the Princeton Shopping Center to see for herself. Now she shops there all the time.

TAILBACK TALE: Tom Morris (left) and Sargent Karch, both Juniors, are battling it out at Blairstown for the starting assignment at left half—the number four or tailback position—in Princeton's single wing system. Off his limited performances last season and better running ability, Morris currently has a slight edge but both players figure to see considerable action throughout the season.

Sports in Princeton

Tigers Start as Underdogs. Princeton University's spring-season football practice began Saturday at Blairstown with an atmosphere of unusual determination. It may be entirely logical that the Tigers, defending Ivy League champions, have already been counted out as contenders for the 1956 title but no one likes to be told in advance that there is no use trying.

Pre-season predictions have rated Yale (bulwarked with nine holdover regulars and 30 lettermen) a shoe-in for the Ivy crown the first year that it is placed in formal contention. A solid Cornell squad has been given the runner-up spot in the advance ratings of the eight teams, while some forecasters have also placed Dartmouth and possibly Harvard ahead of the Orange and Black.

No one in the Princeton contingent of 65 players, half a dozen coaches, plus trainers and managers is objecting. If the pressure of living up to advance billing is placed on the other guy, so much the better. But it will be difficult to prove to the eager Princetonians that they have lost on paper before the schedule is played.

One factor this season will work in their behalf. With college opening a week later than last fall, the 62-man squad will get eight more practice sessions than they had a year ago, and if September heat sets in, they'll have the cool weather of the Kittatinny Mountains favoring them much longer than usual. They won't be back on the Princeton campus until the 21st—six days later than last year.

Six Good Starting Bets. As the Tigers drill on the birch-ringed gridiron overlooking a picturesque blue lake, six players appear to be relatively sure of starting positions for the Rutgers opener on September 29. Battles for the five spots involve anywhere from two to four candidates for each berth, with personnel switches likely at least through the third game of the season.

The three sure bets for starting positions are Captain Mike Bowman, 212-lb., guard who ranks with the best in the east; Earle Harder, a standout 200-lb. tackle; and John Sapoch, who made the second all-Ivy team as a sophomore because of his fine play both as a blocking back and line-backer.

Three others who are likely to win starting assignments are Mike Stewart of Westcott Road, from whom much is expected in his final year at end; Rusty Melges, Harder's 215-lb. running mate at tackle; and Bill Danforth, a reserve wingback for two seasons whom the coaches hope will contribute much to the position this season.

After that, it's a big question mark. Four other ends are in primary contention for the spot opposite Stewart: seniors Don MacElwee, and Bob Kent, both lettermen; juniors Jim Valuske and Charlie Disbrow. Letterman Dave Grubb, a junior, may be the starter at the other guard post, but Charlie Caldwell thinks highly of sophomore Bob Rock, a 210-lb. operative who is back after three years in the Navy and played with the Jayvees last fall because he was athletically ineligible while completing his service-interrupted freshman year.

The biggest toss-up is at center, where six players have been named as possibilities. Senior Spike Ball has the most experience, but will have to battle classmate Joe Hunt, juniors Paul Nyström, and Grant Patton, and sophomores George Cox and Howard Hudson. This position figures to give the coaching staff a few headaches before the solution is found.

Sapoch a Fixture. Sapoch became such a fixture in the backfield as a sophomore that, barring injury, he will match the record few other players hold of starting.—Continued on Page 16 all 27 of his varsity games by the time he completes his career. The rest of the ball-carrying quiet is, however, largely undetermined. Danforth at wingback will get competition from Junior Bob Bryer and senior Ron Nelson. At fullback, sophomore Fred Tukey may be good enough to duplicate Sapech's feat of winning a starting berth while still at Blairstown, but he will have to beat out juniors Wayne Reagan and Lee Weber.

A two-way battle for the vital spot at tailback will be waged between juniors Tom Morris and Sargeot Karch. If their combined abilities could be blended into one player, the problem would be quickly solved: Karch is a very good punter, Morris has much to learn in this respect; Morris is a better broken field runner and somewhat the faster of the two; Karch is the choice in passing, although both need improvement in this department.

The Tigers have a major problem in developing a tailback this season, and whatever success is achieved will not come quickly. The major emphasis will be on passing so as to give balance to the offense. Last year's worst aerial attack, hobbled almost all season by Eoyce Flippin's injury, netted only 379 yards. It's an all-time low in the post-war era at Princeton, and Charlie Caldwell is extremely hopeful that it won't be duplicated.

Wanted: Passers, Kickers. More than 75 varsity football candidates will be expected at Princeton High School at 8:30 a.m. this Friday, when Coach Joe Jingoil supervises "must" physical examinations for his 1956 squad. After the morning ritual, uniforms will be handed out, the fall's first practice session will get underway and sights will be set on the September 21 opener against Leonardo High.

Sizing up the situation, as of now, Jingoil said the initial order of business—in addition to eliminating vacation "kinks"—will be a full-scale search for passers and kickers. Tailback Ivan Riddick probably will handle most of the punting and kickoffs and Fullback Nick Kovalakides probably will be the team's No. 1 passer, but Jingoil feels an urgent need for competent understudies—just in case.

Early practices also will be devoted in large part to pass receiving and point-after-touchdown endeavors, a pair of glaring weaknesses during the 1955 season. Tackle Joe (The Too) Nutt, who produced PATs with surprising regularity by the end of the last campaign, will receive special attention at the outset this year, while all end hopefuls will be put through lengthy pass-catching drills.

The head coach announced that Maurice Still, 150-pound right halfback prospect, will not be available due to enlistment in the Navy. His absence will not hurt too much, however, since Co-Captain Jim Mather is figured to play much of the time at wingback and there will be at least four other promising candidates for the position.

Firemen's Attention Diverted. With thoughts focused on its big Labor Day target shoot, Princeton Engine Company No. 1 went into a temporary lull last Tuesday night and the doldrums proved costly on the diamond. Kingston's "youngsters" took advantage of every opportunity, defeating No. 1 by a decisive 6-2 count in the Firemen's Baseball League.

As a result of No. 1's unexpected loss—the second straight at

Shh! No Yale High

Fresh from Evanston, Ill., where he showed promise as a lineman in his sophomore year at high school, Bob Strahs (rhymes with straw) is a young man who should help Coach Joe Jingoil's Little Tigers considerably this fall. The strapping junior, a candidate for one of the tackle slots, stands 6 feet 3 inches and weighs 195 pounds.

If all goes well and Strahs performs as expected, Coach Jingoil hopes the newcomer will discontinue his apparent tour of "Big Three" high schools and play his senior season here, too. Last year, Strahs' school was Harvard High in Evanston. With his coming to Princeton High, and looking every ounce a football player, Jingoil advises: "Let's not bother to find him a Yale High anywhere."

the hands of normally impotent Kingston—Princeton Engine Company No. 3, idle last week, "backed" into first place in the loop's Eastern division. No. 1's drop to second reversed a switch of the previous week, when No. 1 tied into the top spot while No. 3 was being upset.

Kingston, led by three Kirbys and three Lucks, proved that its earlier victory over No. 1 was no fluke. Its success last week was definite from start to finish. It was also a triumph that left the division race red-hot, what with No. 3's pace-setting record standing at 10-3 and No. 1's slipping to 11-4.

AT ANTI-SUBMARINE SCHOOL: David Fulmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Kline Fulmer, 3 Ober Road, is completing training at the Anti-Submarine Naval School in Key West, Florida. A June graduate of Officers Candidate School, Newport, R. I., he will rejoin the destroyer escort "Waller" in October.

Instance, is in trouble—what with the University expecting to absorb the school's University-owned playing fields—so some sort of deal should be worked out with the University to obtain some of its other far-flung acreage for P.C.D. I have a deep concern for Mrs. Chapin's School, confined as it is, and feel it should figure out a give-and-take deal, too. Incidentally, I'd also like to ask a question and try to determine who's going to be the next president of the University. Bernice Weinstein, 96 Nassau Street, store owner; As a Jaycee and chairman of the Jaycees' welfare committee, I believe Princeton has a great need for a community swimming pool—and we are sponsoring plans for such a pool. Right now, people in Princeton have to leave town too much to satisfy their recreation wants. Many with large families cannot afford to travel to these recreation facilities. My question: Will Princeton rally in support of the Jaycees' pool program?

Robert Dougherty, 95 Library Place, real estate salesman: How can Princeton's present rental situation be alleviated? That question comes to mind immediately because, right now, the door in our office never stops swinging open and bringing in people who will be here only one or two years and therefore need rentals. It's definitely one of Princeton's major problems, if not THE problem.

Oscar Wright, 11 Maclean Street, retired club manager: I've lived in Princeton for many years and I think it's a lovely town, but I'm wondering what our young people are thinking. I'm concerned about what the future is going to bring for them. The youngsters don't seem to have any cares at all. They don't seem to think of the other fellow—just themselves. They seem in such a hurry to have a good time. As they hurry up, I'm slowing down—and I'll be! I'm actually having a better time than they are. I think you'd be wise to ask them what all the rush is about and where they think they're heading.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

"Bus Stop" winds up its two-week stand at the Bucks County Playhouse this Saturday and "Fallen Angels" makes its bow Monday evening for a run of a week. There are Wednesday and Saturday matinees at Bucks County.

"Fallen Angels" proved to be the exception to the rule that revivals don't have long runs. The comedy, written by Noel Coward in 1924, played for eight months and closed just two weeks ago on Broadway.

The producers kept the play in its original period, so the sets and costumes contribute to the amusement. Mary McCarty (who replaced Nancy Walker early in the summer) and Margaret Phillips are the stars who will repeat their roles at New Hope.

The revival won unanimous critical acclaim. "Fallen Angels" was also a great success when it first bowed in 1924, with Edna Best and Tallulah Bankhead in the leading roles.

Others in the cast at New Hope will be Barbara Joyce, Bob Crowley and Casey Walters. Charles Bowden directed.

Sports In Princeton
Mead begged off for a week and remained firmly ahead with a 9-3 record. The illness of a key pitcher, the same reason lodged by Idle No. 3, was used as a postponement excuse by Belle Mead. League officials expected a full slate of games to be played this week, however.

Clear Games Mark PCL. Three fine pitching duels between Bill Bergen of Drake's and Jim Keigher of the Nassau Social Club were waged this past week, with the latter succeeding on one occasion. As a result, NSC—No. 1 team in the Princeton Community League during the regular softball season found itself backed against the wall in the final best-of-five play-off series.

Loop officials announced that the fourth and possibly conclusive game of the hard-fought series will be played at 6 p. m. this Thursday at Golden Field. If needed, a fifth contest will be scheduled at the same hour next Tuesday on the same diamond.

In the opening encounter, Bergen struck out eight batters while hurling a no-hitter as Drake's triumphed, 5-1. Kahny pitched effective ball—with the exception of a lone "goofball" that resulted in a two-run triple for Ted Drake—but his teammates failed wholly to support him.

The second meeting of the two rivals last Thursday was much the same story. Bergen, who showed a tendency toward wildness during the early part of the summer, continued to improve his control at NSC's expense, fanning nine and permitting only three safeties in a 3-1 victory. Kahny also limited Drake's to three hits, but one was a damaging top single by Drake after two men had reached scoring position on a walk and an error.

Still without batting support from his teammates, Kahny pitched an excellent two-hit contest Tuesday evening and captured a 1-0 shutout. NSC actually got only one safety off Bergen, an unproductive hit by Zucky Cupples, but Drake's two hits also went for naught and NSC scored the decisive run by taking advantage of a series of breaks.

Al Rauch walked, stole second, took third on a fly by George Sickle and came home on a sacrifice fly by Jack Petrone. That was the story of NSC's thrilling win in the best series game to date.

Baseball With Snowballs. Still trying valiantly to complete two previously rained-out games with Montgomery Township, the Princeton Athletic Club nine gave it a good try last Thursday but had to settle for a 2-2 tie. Now, Montgomery is overhauled PAC for second place in the Tri-County League's final standings, the two teams must replay the deadlock and also play the other postponed contest.

Predicting that "we will be playing when the snow flies," PAC Manager Charlie Perpetua said he hoped one game could be scheduled sometime this week before many of his club's performers have to return to school. He noted that PAC actually was quite lucky to wind up with a tie last week, as Montgomery led until Robin Foster doubled home Princeton's second run in the last of the fifth of a six-inning encounter.

Adolphus Buggs, Jr. of Birch Avenue has started a 60-day sentence in the Mercer County Workhouse. Already under suspended sentence for drunk and disorderly conduct, he began the two-month stay when Magistrate Louis R. Gerber sentenced him Tuesday night after he had been found asleep on a neighbor's porch.

Harvey G. Foster, special agent in charge of the FBI's Newark office, is scheduled to address the Princeton Kiwanis Club at its luncheon meeting at the Nassau Tavern Thursday. Last week, the YMCA was discussed by Jack Rimalover of ETS, pinch-hitting for Raymond Bowers, who was called out of town at the last minute.

Following their children back to school next Tuesday will be members of the St. Paul's P.T.A., who will hold their first fall meeting in the school cafeteria Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. A discussion of the existing Activities Fund is on the agenda.

The Montgomery Township P.T.A. will hold a book fair at the new elementary school September 16, the day of dedication of the school. The purpose of the fair is to have residents of the community examine a collection of books and choose their contributions to the library of the school.

CELEBRATING HIGH HOLY DAYS: According to Rabbi Joseph H. Geiberman, center, Princeton's Jewish Center is probably the only Synagogue in the country in which a woman assists the Rabbi at High Holy Days services. Mrs. Benjamin Miller, right, will read the English portions of the service. Meyer Goldstein, left, chairman of the religious committee of the Center, will read the Torah. Jess Epstein, president of the Center, was absent from the picture because of illness. (Alan Richards Photo)

News of the Churches

Bulletin Notes . . . A new book by the Rev. Ernest Gordon, Dean of Chapel at Princeton, has just been published by Coward-McCann. Its title, "A Living Faith for Today", . . . Deacons of the First Presbyterian Church will dine together at the church next Tuesday at 6:45 p.m. Dr. John R. Bodo will talk to them about his recent trip to Brazil.

A long-time resident of Princeton has presented to Friends' Meeting the school-master's desk used at the old Friends' Day School before it was razed in 1900. The low pine desk was removed from the School and stored in Worth's Mill until that, too, was torn down. Its present donor purchased it from a local antique dealer. . . . Young members of Kingston Presbyterian's Senior Christian Endeavor have given to the congregation two new offering plates.

REGULAR SERVICES
Unitarian. Members of the Unitarian congregation will resume their weekly services this Sunday after the summer holiday. They will meet at 11 a.m. at the Witherspoon M.C.A., Witherspoon and Green Streets. The Rev. Stranghan L. Cettler will speak "On Being Self-Appointed Liberals".

Princeton Methodist. "Achan—Troubles of Israel" is the sermon topic chosen by the Rev. Charles W. Marker for this Sunday. Services will begin at 11 a.m. instead of the 10 a.m. summer hour. Church School will meet at 9:45 a.m.

Baptist at Penns Neck. This Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service, the Rev. S. Robert Weaver will preach on "Religion in Working Clothes". Bible School will meet at 9:45 a.m. At the Fellowship Hour next Tuesday at

Princetonian at Workshop

The Rev. Arthur M. Byers, 240 State Road, member of the department of Stewardship, Presbyterian church, attended the annual audio-visual workshop of the National Council of Churches of Christ, held last month at the University of Southern California.

Producer of church films for the past three years, the Rev. Mr. Byers has just seen the release of his latest production, "This High Calling", an interpretation of the church's role in domestic and foreign missions, and Christian education. (Part of this film was shot on the campus of Princeton Seminary last fall.)

Before the workshop began, Rev. Mr. Byers participated in a two-week seminar on radio, television and mass communication media as a means of education and communication for the Presbyterian church.

7:30 p.m., the church will begin a series of studies entitled, "These Things Are True".

St. Paul's Roman Catholic. Masses will be offered hourly this Sunday from 6 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the auditorium of St. Paul's School.

Trinity Episcopal. For this 15th Sunday after Trinity, the Rev. Charles G. Newbery will give the sermon at the 11 a.m. service of morning prayer. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and Family Eucharist at 9:30.

Trinity at Rocky Hill. The Rev. Robert N. Smyth will deliver the sermon at the 11 a.m. morning prayer service.

Christian Science. "Substance" is the Lesson-Sermon for this Sunday. It will be read at 11 a.m. and again at 8:15 p.m. when Sunday evening services resume for the year. Sunday School will meet at 11 a.m. Next Wednesday there will be a testimonial meeting at 8:15 p.m.

Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. At the 11 a.m. service this Sunday, the Rev. Yancey Lee Sims will preach from the theme, "The Turning Point". Sunday School will meet at 9:45 a.m. Sunday evening meditation will begin at 8 p.m. Next Wednesday the senior ushers and the Trustees' Aid Club will lead the 8:30 hour of prayer.

First Presbyterian, Dr. John R. Bodo will preach at 9:30 and 11 a.m. this Sunday.

Witherspoon Presbyterian. "The Demands of Christian Discipleship" is the sermon for this Sunday. The Rev. Benjamin J.

Anderson will preach at 11 a.m. There will be a mid-week service at 8:15 p.m. next Wednesday.

Second Presbyterian. The Rev. Dr. William L. Tucker will preach at 11 a.m. this Sunday.

Kingston Presbyterian. There will be 11 a.m. services this Sunday.

Lawrenceville Presbyterian. "The Consistent Face" is the subject of the 11 a.m. service this Sunday. The Rev. M. Allen Kimble will preach. Sunday School will resume at the 9:30 a.m. hour.

Society of Friends. Meeting for worship will gather at 11 a.m. this Sunday followed by the September business meeting.

Princeton Jewish Center. Early services at 9 a.m. this Thursday will be followed by a general service at 10 a.m. at the Playhouse on the campus of Westminster Choir College. The sermon at 10 a.m. will be "There Are No Shortcuts", Rabbi Joseph H. Geiberman will speak. He will also lead a question and answer period this Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

This Friday, there will again be early services at 9 a.m. and a general service at 10 a.m., with a sermon on "Socialized Religion". The Jewish Center will hold its annual fall reception at the Hun School this Sunday from 3-6 p.m. Next Monday, registration for the religious school will be held at the Center on Olden Avenue from 7-9 p.m. It is not necessary for members to be present.
